

Ankur Singh
Partner

Ankur Singh is a dispute resolution lawyer with significant experience in handling complex Civil and Commercial Litigations, Arbitrations and Competition / Anti-Trust enforcement matters. He also appears and advices on sensitive criminal matters involving corporate criminal liability, cheating, money laundering and financial frauds (White Collar Crimes).

Over the years, Ankur has worked on diverse sets of matters, both in terms of legal subject matters as well as forums. He regularly appears before the Supreme Court of India, High Courts, Statutory Tribunals, Arbitral Tribunals, Commissions, and other regulatory authorities, and deals with matters from the field of Aviation, Banking and Securitisation, Construction, Electricity, E-commerce, Hospitality, Insurance, Public Procurement, Railways, Telecom and Broadcasting, and Transportation and Logistics. This gives him an unique ability to approach legal issues in a holistic and sector agnostic manner when demanded. His mantra is to provide outcome oriented and resource efficient legal services to the clients.

Ankur holds B.A. LLB. (Hons) from National University of Juridical Sciences, Kolkata. (2010-2015). He is admitted to practice law in India.

He enjoys playing snooker and has deep interest in history and theology. He also likes to collect vintage watches and vinyl records.
